tors are hereby authorised so to apportion the shares subscribed among the several subscribers as to exclude no one subscriber from a participation in the said stock, and as may reduce the whole to the number to be subscribed for, but if the said subscriptions shall not be filled upon the first day, the said directors shall have power to adjourn from day to day, until the whole number of shares shall be subscribed for, and at any time after the first day when the said subscriptions shall be complete, it shall be the duty of the said directors immediately to close the books, and those only who have actually subscribed previous thereto shall be entitled to the said stock, and it shall be the duty of John R. Dall, John Ash, Jacob Wolf, Matthew S. Van Lear, William Dickey, John Hogg, Henry Dellinger and Michael Smith, who are appointed directors of said bank to serve until the first Monday in May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, or a majority of them, to conduct every operation of the proposed institution until the expiration of the period above mentioned."

And inserting in lieu of that section, the following:

"Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That John R. Dall, John Ash, Jacob Wolt, Matthew S. Van Lear, William Dickey, John Hogg, Henry Dellinger and Michael Smith, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, under the direction of a majority of whom subscriptions may be received to the capital stock of the said Washington County Bank; and they, or a majority of them, may cause books to be opened at such times and places as they may direct, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, after having given such notice of the times and places of opening the same as they may deem proper; and that upon the fisrt opening of said books, they shall be kept open for at least three successive days, from ten o'clock, A. M. until two o'clock, P. M. and if at the expiration of that period, such a subscription of the capital stock of said company, as is necessary to its incorporation, shall not have been obtained, the said commissioners, or a majority of them, may cause the said books to be opened from time to time, after the expiration of the said three days, for the space of twelve months thereafter, or until the sum necessary to the incorporation of said company shall have been subscribed if sooner subscribed; and if any of the said commissioners shall die, resign, or refuse to act, during the continuance of the duties devolved upon them by this act, another may be appointed in his stead by the remaining commissioners."

"Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That at the expiration of the
