

The house proceeded to consider the bill from the senate, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five. And, in the progress of the second reading thereof;

On motion by Mr. Ely, the house adopted the following amendments, viz:

Amendments proposed.

After the word, "chancery," in the 8th line of the bill, strike out the word "or."

After the word, "equity," in the same line, insert, "or orphans court."

After the word "chancellor," in the 11th line, strike out the word "or."

After the words, "county court," in the same line, insert the words "or orphans court."

After the word, "thereof," in the sixteenth line, insert "or orphans court."

After the word, "chancellor," in the last line of the bill, strike out the word, "or."

And, after the word "court," at the end of the bill, insert the words, "or orphans court."

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass, with the proposed amendments?

And it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Eccleston, the house proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Hardcastle, of Dorchester, entitled, An act to make valid certain proceedings of Thomas H. Hicks, late sheriff and collector of Dorchester county; which being read the second time, was passed without amendment.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill, entitled, An act incorporating a company to erect a toll bridge across the Potomac river, at some eligible point between Noland's ferry, and the Mouth of Goose creek; endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendment;" which amendment, being read the first, and, by a special order, the second time, was assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Also, returned the bill, entitled, An act to authorise Henry Gantt, of Prince George's county, to remove negro Harriet into this state; endorsed, "will not pass."

And delivered bills, originated in, and passed by, the senate, entitled, An additional supplement to the act, for the better regulation of chancery proceedings, in certain cases; which, being read by its title, was referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

And, An act to prevent obstructions in Smith's, and other
