

ed at November session, 1801, chap. 37: reported by Mr. Osborn, on the 13th instant, And

A supplement to the act, entitled. an act to incorporate the Baltimore and Pittston coal company; reported by Mr. Nichols on the 13th instant.

The bill from the Senate, entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to change the names of the Bank of Westminster, and office of pay and receipt, to the Farmer's and Mechanic's bank of Frederick county, and to locate said bank at Frederick city, with a branch at Westminster," was taken up for consideration, read the second time, and passed without amendment.

A deputation from the Senate being announced.

Messrs. Nelson and Heath, members of that body, appeared within the bar, and acquainted the Speaker and the House of Delegates, that, in accordance with the joint invitations of both Houses, which had been personally communicated to him, the Governor, elect, was then attending in the Senate chamber, where the Senate requested the attendance of the Speaker, with that of the other members of this house, to witness the qualification of the Governor elect. And they withdrew.

The Speaker thereupon left the chair, and, attended by the other members of this House, went to the Senate chamber, where the Hon. Thomas King Carroll was duly qualified as Governor of the State of Maryland, (by and before the President of the Senate,) in the presence of both Houses, in the manner and form prescribed by the constitution and laws thereof.

The Speaker, (attended by the other members of this House,) returned, and resumed the chair; when

On motion by Mr. Turner, of Baltimore county,

The House adjourned until to-morrow morning, ten o'clock.

---

SATURDAY, January 16th, 1830.

The house met at ten o'clock, pursuant to adjournment; After the performance of Divine service by the Reverend Mr. Blanchard, the Speaker took the Chair, and the roll was called over, Were present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of which were read.

Leave of absence from the service of the house for a few days, was granted to Mr. Grason, the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means.