

cond time, passed without amendment, and sent to the Senate for concurrence, viz:

An act to repeal all special acts of Assembly for the pecuniary relief of indigent persons, by county assessments, in Caroline county, and for other purposes; reported by Mr. Keene, on the 29th ultimo.

A supplement to the act, entitled, an act to provide for electing commissioners for Cecil county, and prescribing their powers and duties; reported by Mr. Gale, on the 29th ultimo; and

An act to make public a road therein named; reported by Mr. Irvine, on the 29th ultimo.

The report of the Committee on Divorces, made on the 21st ultimo, unfavorable to the petition of Barbara Bast of Frederick county, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time; when

Mr. Dorsey moved as a substitute for said report, a bill, entitled, an act to divorce Barbara Bast, and her husband, Cornelius Bast, of Frederick county,

Which substitute, being read the first time, was, on motion of Mr. Dorsey, read the second time, by a special order obtained for the purpose.

And on the question, "will the House adopt the proposed substitute?"

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The bill was then placed in the hands of the Speaker, and the question put, "shall this bill pass?" It was resolved in the affirmative, and the bill was sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The report of the Committee on Divorces, made on the 21st ultimo, unfavorable to the petition of Catharine Myers, of Frederick county, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time, when Mr. Dorsey moved as a substitute for said report, a bill, entitled, an act to divorce Catharine Myers, and her husband Daniel Myers, of Frederick county.

Which substitute being read the first time, was, on motion of Mr. Dorsey, read the second time, by a special order obtained for the purpose.

And on the question, "will the House adopt the proposed substitute?"

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The bill was then placed in the hand of the Speaker, and the question put, "shall this bill pass?" It was resolved in the affirmative; and the bill was sent to the Senate for concurrence.
