

special order, the second time, passed without amendment, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

On motion by Mr. Teackle,

The house proceeded to consider the bill reported by him on the 26th ultimo, entitled an act to provide for the inspection and counting of staves and heading in this state.

When,

Mr. Teackle offered as a substitute therefor, a bill, entitled an act to provide for the counting of staves and heading in this state; which was twice read, and adopted.

The substituted bill was then passed, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The favorable report of the Committee on Military Pensions and Revolutionary Claims, to which had been referred the petition of Dennis O'Bryan, of Morgan county, in the state of Virginia, an old revolutionary soldier, made on the 5th instant, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time. The said report was concurred in, and the resolution therein contained assented to, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The favorable report of the Committee on Military Pensions and Revolutionary claims, to which had been referred the petition of John Dulaney, of Loudon county, in the commonwealth of Virginia, an old revolutionary soldier, made on the 4th instant, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time. The said report was concurred in, and the resolution therein contained assented to, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The favorable report of the Committee on Military Pensions and Revolutionary Claims, to which had been referred the petition of Thomas McDowell, of Cecil county, an old revolutionary soldier, made on the 4th instant, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time. The said report was concurred in, and the resolution therein contained assented to, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

On motion by Mr. Teackle,

The house proceeded to consider the bill reported by him from the Committee on Inspections, on the 2d instant, entitled an additional supplement to the act, entitled an act to regulate the inspection of lumber, and being read the second time, it was passed without amendment, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The unfavorable report of the Committee on Ways and Means, to which was referred the petition of the trustees of St. Peter's school, praying the state to relinquish the