

Mr. Brown, from the select committee, to whom was re-committed the bill, entitled, An act for the destruction of crows in Kent county, reported a bill, entitled, An act for the destruction of crows in the several counties therein mentioned.

And Mr. Turner, from the committee on inspections, reported a bill, entitled, An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorising the appointing of inspectors and corders of fire wood, brought by water to the city of Baltimore, for sale; which were severally read.

The clerk of the senate returned the resolution relative to the government house; the resolution authorising the executive to settle the account of Jonas Green for the printing of the present session, and the resolution directing the treasurer of the western shore to invest the money due Montgomery county, on account of the free schools fund, in the Commercial and Farmers Bank of Baltimore; severally endorsed, "assented to." Ordered to be engrossed.

And delivered letters from George Howard and Thomas C. Worthington, Esquires, accepting of their appointment as members of the executive council; endorsed, "referred to the consideration of the house of delegates;" which were read. And the following message:

By the Senate,

January 11th, 1831.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate have received your message of the 5th instant, containing the words of an order, passed by you on that day, which instructs your committee on internal improvement to inquire into the expediency and practicability (with the concurrence and co-operation of the states of Virginia and Delaware,) of opening a safe and direct navigation through the sounds which run parallel with the sea-coast, and such canals as may be necessary between the Chesapeake and Delaware Bays.

The senate concur with your proposition, that the proper committees of both branches of the legislature act together upon the subject, and have this day passed the order necessary for that purpose.

By order,

L. Gassaway, Clk.

The bill, entitled, An act to prevent swine and geese going at large in Middletown Groves Addition and Keller's Addition to Middle-town, in Frederick county; and the bill
