

A. Lowe, of Prince-George's county; which was read the first and second time by special order; When

Mr. Gantt, moved as a substitute therefor, a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of Adelaide V. Lowe, of Federick county, passed at December session 1822, chapter 100.

Mr. Wootton, moved to lay the report and substitute on the table? Determined in the negative.

Mr. Turner, renewed the motion to lay the report and substitute on the table; and on the question being put, was again determined in the negative.

Mr. Jenifer, then moved that the report and substitute be recommitted? Determined in the negative.

Mr. Wootton, again moved to lay the report and substitute on the table? Resolved in the affirmative.

The house proceeded to consider the order of the day, it being the bill reported by Mr. Teackle, entitled, An act to promote the preservation, improvement, and increase of shell-fish in this state.

Mr. Jenifer, moved to amend the bill by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section, the following:

“And be it enacted, That the foregoing section shall not be construed to extend in any manner whatever to the waters of the western shore of this state, and further, that the act to which this is a supplement shall not give or admit any privilege or privileges to the citizens of the western shore over the waters of the eastern shore, which are not allowed by said act to the citizens of the eastern shore over the waters of the western shore of Maryland.”

And the question thereon being put, was determined in the negative.

Mr. Brawner offered the following as a substitute for the bill:

That the first, second, third, and fourth sections of said act, to which this is a supplement, be and the same are hereby repealed, saving and reserving to individuals any rights which may have accrued under said act for locations, appropriations or depots of oysters, already made in virtue thereof, and that the residue of said original act be and the same is hereby extended to the whole state. And on the question being put, was determined in the negative.

Mr. Wootton then moved to strike out the enacting clause of the bill? Resolved in the affirmative.
