

ted, A further additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act to establish pilots and regulate their fees, was made the order of the day for Tuesday next the 1st of February.

On motion by Mr. Brawner, the bill reported by him, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to prevent unnecessary accumulation of costs on all actions or suits at law in the county courts of this state, passed at December session 1829, chapter 166, was taken up for consideration, read the second time, and passed.

On motion by Mr. Tilghman, the resolution offered by him on the 21st inst. directing the clerk of the council to give notice by advertisement, for at least two consecutive weeks before the first day of November next, and annually thereafter, in three newspapers in the city of Baltimore, two in the city of Frederick, and two in the city of Annapolis, that sealed proposals will be received by him until the last Monday in December following, for furnishing the necessary stationary for the use of the executive and legislative departments of the government for the ensuing year, was taken up for consideration, read the second time, and assented to.

On a motion by Mr. Stewart, the unfavourable report of the committee on claims, upon the order directing them to inquire into the expediency of allowing the claims of Edward Pye, of Charles county, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time;

When Mr. Brawner offered as a substitute for the report, the following resolution,

Resolved, That the treasurer be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to pay to Edward Pye the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars. for arms collected by him in Charles county, and cash actually expended in said service,

On the question being put, Will the house adopt the substitute? It was determined in the negative.

Mr. Brawner then offered as a substitute for the report the following resolution:

Resolved, That the governor and council be authorised and empowered to examine into the claim of Edward Pye of Charles county for arms collected by him in said county, and for cash actually expended in said service, and make such allowance for the same, not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars, as shall be consistent with equity and justice, to be paid out of the contingent fund."

On the question being put on the adoption of the substitute, it was determined in the negative.

The question was then put, Will the house concur in the report? Resolved in the affirmative.
