The house then proceeded to consider the third order of the day, it being the bill reported by Mr. Teackle from the committee on education, entitled, An additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act to provide for the public instruction of youth in primary schools throughout this state.

Mr. Tilghman moved to refer the bill to the consideration of the next general assembly?

On the question being put, it was resolved in the affirmative.

The house proceeded to consider the amendments proposed by the senate to the bill reported by Mr. Edelen, entitled, An act to restrain attorneys and solicitors in chancery from entering their appearance to any suit, bill or action at law or in equity, in the courts of this state, without special authority.

The 1st amendment was agreed to by the house.
