

house to join such gentlemen as may be named by your honourable body, to count the ballots and report thereon.

By Order, George G. Brewer, Clk.

Mr. Johnson presented the memorial of James Hancock, of the State of Kentucky, praying for a special act to authorise the trustee in Frederick county, of the estate of Joseph Fogle, a lunatic, in Kentucky to pay over the funds in his hands to a trustee to be appointed in Kentucky to receive the same; which was read, and referred to Messrs. Johnson, Brawner, and Brookhart;

Also, the memorial of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal company, with documents; praying that the state will grant them additional water privileges; also documents and reports accompanying said petition; which was read, and referred to the committee on internal improvement;

Also, the memorial of Henry Kemp, of Frederick county, setting forth the claims of the state to a certain parcel of land in Fredericktown; which was read, and referred to Messrs. Johnson, Fitzhugh, and Jones, of Frederick;

And, the memorial of Valentine Birely, of Frederick county, counter to the memorial of Henry Kemp, and praying that the state will not disturb his title to a certain lot of land in his possession situated in Fredericktown, and that commissioners be appointed with power to inquire into and adjust the same; which was read, and referred to the committee appointed on the petition to which it is counter.

Mr. Hunt presented the memorial of Nathaniel Potter and others, of the city of Baltimore, praying that the trustees of the Medical College may be authorised to settle certain claims against said College; which was read, and referred to Messrs. Hunt, Teackle, Brown, of Kent, Edden, and Moores.

Mr. Launson presented the memorial of Thomas Kelso and others, against the inspection of hides in the city of Baltimore; which was read, and referred to the committee on inspections.

Mr. Harding presented the petition of Joseph Larned, of the city of Washington, praying for a special act of insolvency; which was read, and referred to the committee on insolvency;

Also, the petition of Edmond Compton of Washington county, in the state of Kentucky, a Revolutionary officer, praying for a pension; which was read, and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Moores presented the petition of Elizabeth F. Raphael and others, praying that an act may pass authorising