

money and rebuild a bridge over Herring Run, on the road leading from Baltimore to Belle Air, on what is called the Belle Air road;

Also, the bill entitled, An act relating to a certain road in Baltimore county, therein mentioned;

Also, the bill entitled, A supplement to the act entitled, An act to regulate the manner of obtaining and altering public roads in Baltimore county, passed at December session, 1825;

Also, the bill entitled, An act to authorise the commissioners of Baltimore county, to appoint collectors in the cases therein mentioned;

Also, the bill entitled, A further additional supplement to an act entitled, An act for quieting possessions, enrolling conveyances, and securing the estates of purchasers;

And, the resolutions in favour of Daniel Jenifer and others.

Also, the resolution in favour of the heirs of George Ireland;

The resolutions relative to the free persons of colour in this state, and of the United States;

The resolution authorising the clerk of the senate to record the proceedings of the several electoral colleges, from the year 1781, to the year 1825, inclusive;

The resolution appropriating the sum of eight hundred dollars for the use of the state library;

And the resolution in favour of William W. Higgins and Charles E. Tilden—were sent to the senate.

Mr. M^cKinstrey presented the petition of sundry citizens of Frederick county, praying the legislature to devise such means for the liberation and removal of the coloured population of the state, as may be consistent with humanity and the public safety; which was read and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Also, presented the petition of sundry citizens of Mechanicstown, in Frederick county, counter to the petition of sundry citizens, praying for the incorporation of said town; which was read and referred to the committee appointed on the petition to which it is counter.

Mr. Brookhart presented the petition of Catherine Grove, widow of David Grove, a revolutionary soldier, praying to be placed on the pension roll; which was read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Moores presented the petition of Mortimer Cunningham, counter to the petition of his wife, Martha Eliza-