

The house then proceeded by ballot to the election of a director on the part of the state, in the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Baltimore, in conformity with the arrangement made with the senate for that purpose, and the ballots of the members being collected in the ballot box, it was sealed up, delivered to the committee appointed on the part of this house, to meet the committee named on the part of the senate, to count the joint ballot of both houses, and report the result, who retired to the conference room.

Messrs Gantt and Teackle, from the joint committee of both houses, appointed for the purpose of examining and counting the votes taken on the joint ballot, for a director on the part of the state, in the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Baltimore; wherein the state, as a stockholder is entitled to a director, and of reporting the result; accordingly reported as follows:

That from an examination of the ballot boxes, it appeared that there were altogether sixty nine votes taken; of which number Thomas Mummey had received 57 votes, that there were six scattering and six blank ballots;

Whereupon, it was declared in the house of delegates, that Thomas Mummey, was duly elected a director on the part of the state, in the Bank above mentioned, for and during the current year;

On motion by Mr. Thomas, of Cecil,

The house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, entitled, An act for the benefit of Lower West Nottingham Presbyterian Church;

The said bill was then read the second time, and passed.

The house adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.
