The said bill was then read the second time as amended, and passed.

Mr. Laurenson, chairman of the joint committee on the part of the house of delegates, delivered the following report:

The committee appointed on the part of the house of delegates, to make arrangements for the celebration of the Centennial Anniversary of the birth of Washington, in conjunction with a similar committee on the part of the senate, begs leave to report the following order of proceeding for that day, to wit:—

1st. The legislature to adjourn over from the twenty-first to the twenty-third inst.

2d. A federal salute to be fired at sunrise.

3d. The state flag to be displayed throughout the day.

4th. A national salute to be fired at noon.

5th. A prayer by the Rev. Chaplain of the senate.

6th. Washington's Farewell Address to be read by the speaker of the house of delegates.
