

wife Eleanor Hays; which was read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Lantz submitted the following resolution,

By the House of Delegates,

February 15th, 1832.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Executive deliver to Henry Korus and Moses H. I. O. - than, of the town of Cumberland in Allegany county, or to their order, one peice of six pound iron ordnance with carriage, limbers and the accoutrements belonging thereto, upon their giving bond approved by the Governor and Council, conditioned for the safe keeping, and return of the same to the city of Annapolis, when required by the Executive. By order, Thos. W. Watkins, Clerk.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and assented to.

Mr. Ely from the select committee, delivered the following report, accompanied with the following resolution,

The committee to which was referred the memorial of James D. Woodside, of the city of Washington, praying further remuneration for his extraordinary services in elevating to the summit of the monument in the city of Baltimore, the colossal statue of the illustrious Washington, have had the same under consideration, and recommend the adoption of the following resolution;

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of the Western Shore, pay to James D. Woodside, of the city of Washington, or order, the sum of _____ dollars as a further compensation for his services in elevating the colossal statue of the illustrious Washington to the summit of the monument in the city of Baltimore.

Which was read.

Mr. Handy submitted the following preamble and resolution,

WHEREAS, it is inconsistent with the genius of our institutions, and repugnant to that generous and liberal spirit which has heretofore characterised our state, that any public servant should incur responsibility, and be subject to labour without receiving an adequate compensation: And whereas, by a resolution of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December session, 1829, the books and papers of the late Auditor General's office, were transferred from the Clerk of the Council to the Register of the Land Office of the Western Shore, and he is required by said resolution to give information, &c. to those who may be any way concerned therein, without making him any compensation for the same--Therefore,