

of a financial institution, to be founded upon the invested moneys in the treasury, for the supply of revenues, and the general convenience and benefit—together with the bill reported by the select committee upon that subject, be referred to the consideration of the next general assembly.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill entitled, A further additional supplement to an act entitled, An act for the recovery of small debts; endorsed "will pass;" ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the bill entitled, An additional supplement to the act entitled, An act for the benefit of the University of Maryland; endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendment;

Which amendment was read the first and second time by special order, assented to and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the bill entitled, A supplement to an act entitled, An act to reduce into one the several acts of assembly respecting elections, and to regulate such elections; endorsed, "will not pass;"

Also, the preamble and resolution relative to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, endorsed, "assented to;" ordered to be engrossed.

Also, delivered the engrossed bills of the senate, from number 191, to number 209, inclusive, severally endorsed, "assented to;"

Which was read, assented to and returned to the senate.

The bill reported by Mr. Laurensen, entitled, An additional supplement to the act entitled, An act for the promotion of internal improvement;

Was taken up for consideration and read the second time;

Mr. Dalrymple moved to refer said bill to the consideration of the next general assembly.

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Thomas, of Queen Anne's, moved to strike out the enacting clause of the bill.

Resolved in the affirmative.

The bill from the senate entitled, An act for amending and reducing into system, the laws and regulations concerning powers of attorney from heirs and legatees, and of releases and final discharges to executors, administrators and guardians;

Was taken up for consideration, read the second time, passed and returned to the senate.

The bill reported by Mr. Turner, of Baltimore county,