

the session, because of the urgent and useful objects, it is intended to answer.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Cl'k.

Which was read.

On motion by Mr. Nicols,

The house reconsidered their vote upon the bill mentioned in said message.

The favorable reports of the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, upon the petitions of Airy Smith, Juliana Rewark, and Sarah Smith, (widows of revolutionary soldiers) praying for pensions, were severally taken up for consideration, read the second time, the reports concurred in, and the resolutions therein contained; severally assented to, and sent to the senate.

Mr. Willson, of Montgomery, submitted the following message:

By the House of Delegates,

March 14, 1832.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose, by the concurrence of your honorable body, to invite his excellency the Governor to attend in the senate chamber this evening, at 5 o'clock, to sign and seal the engrossed bills, with a view to a final adjournment of the session. We have appointed Messrs. _____ on the part of this house, to join such gentlemen as may be appointed by your body.

By order,

G. G. BREWER, Cl'k.

Which was read;

And, on motion by Mr. Teackle,

Ordered to lie on the table.

The bill reported by Mr. Ely, entitled, an act to alter and amend that part of the constitution which relates to the election of the senate by electors, was taken up for consideration, and read the second time.

On the question being put, shall the said bill pass:

It was determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Laurensen,

The yeas and nays were ordered, and appeared as follows:—
