

Which was read and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice;

Also, returned the bill, entitled, An act relating to free negroes and slaves, endorsed, "6th and 7th amendments reconsidered and receded from," and the bill ordered to be engrossed;

And delivered the following messages.

Which were read.

By the Senate.

March 14th 1832.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates.

We have received your message with the bill entitled an act relating to free negroes and slaves, and having reconsidered it, we have receded from the amendment as requested by you.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Clk

By the Senate,

March 14th 1832:

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

The time having arrived when it was proposed that the final adjournment of the session should take place, we think it necessary in consideration of the important business yet remaining to be transacted, to propose that the adjournment be deferred until this night at 10 o'clock. We would further propose, that the Governor be invited to attend at 8 o'clock in the Senate Chamber to sign the engrossed bills—we have appointed Messrs. Mayer and Chapman, on the part of the senate to wait on the Governor for that purpose.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Clk.

By the Senate,

March 14th, 1832.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We beg leave to return to your honorable body, and respectfully submit to you the propriety of reconsidering the bill rejected by your house, entitled, An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act directing the manner of serving out attachments in this province, and limiting the extent of the same.

The provisions of this bill are highly important and much required under existing decisions of our courts of law; and, as the interests of individuals are deeply concerned in the passage of the act, we trust that the bill may receive your favourable consideration—our impression of