Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have rejected the resolution of your honorable body in favor of William Riley and others, under a belief that the persons provided for by the resolution, are equitably entitled to a release of interest only, from the time when judgment was rendered in their favor in the county court, to the time when after the decision of the court of appeals judgment was rendered against them in the county court.

We would therefore respectfully suggest that the resolution be amended in your honorable body according to the view we have expressed, and returned for the further consideration of the senate.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Clk.

Mr. Handy submitted the following message and resolution:—

By the House of Delegates,

March 14th, 1832.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message, rejecting the resolution in favor of William Riley and others, sureties of Conrad Hazzard, and have made the amendment as requested by your honorable body, which is herewith sent and request that you will pass the same, as amended.

By Order,

George G. Brewer, Clk.

By the House of Delegates,

March 14th, 1832.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Riley, Henry Franklin, sen. Peter Lester and Zador Powell, all of Worcester county, sureties of Cord Hazzard, former collector of said county, be and they are hereby severally released from the payment of such part of the interest which became due (on a debt due to the state on a bond executed by virtue of an act of 1822, chapter 139,) from the time when judgment was rendered in their favor in the county court, to the time, when after the decision of the court of appeals, judgment was rendered against them on a procedendo to the said county court.
