The said bill was then returned to the senate.

On motion by Mr. Hollman,

Ordered, That it be noted on the journal, that Messrs. Hollman, and Thomas, of Cecil, dissented from the report of the committee on elections, to which was referred, the bill from the senate, entitled, A supplement to an act entitled, An act to reduce into one, the several acts of assembly respecting elections, and to regulate such elections.

Messrs. Holmes and Hood, of the joint committee appointed on the part of this house to wait on his excellency the Governor, and to invite his attendance in the Senate Chamber this evening, for the purpose of signing and sealing the engrossed bills, passed at the present session, reported that the said committee had discharged the duties assigned them, and that the Governor gave for answer, that he would accordingly attend in the Senate Chamber at the time appointed, for the purpose above mentioned.

The clerk of the senate returned the resolution in favor of the securities of Cord Hazard;

Also, the resolution in favor of William M'Neir, severally endorsed, 'assented to,' ordered to be engrossed;

Also, the bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to promote internal improvement by the construction of a Rail Road from Baltimore to the city of Washington, endorsed, 'will pass;' ordered to be engrossed;

Also, the bill, entitled, An act to repeal an act, entitled, An act to abolish imprisonment for debt on certain judgments rendered by justices of the peace, passed at December session, 1830, chapter 155, endorsed, 'will pass with the proposed amendments;' which amendments were severally read the first and second time by special order, and 'dissented from.'
