

Mr. Willson, of Montgomery, from the committee on engrossed bills, delivered the following report:

The committee on engrossed bills, beg leave to report, that they have carefully examined and compared the engrossed bills of the House of Delegates, from number two hundred and twenty-eight, to number three hundred inclusive, and from number three hundred and twenty-three to three hundred and thirty inclusive, and the engrossed bills of the senate from number three hundred and one to number three hundred and twenty-two inclusive; also, the resolutions of the House of Delegates, from number one to number one hundred and twenty-one, and from number one hundred and twenty-nine to number one hundred and thirty inclusive, and also the resolutions of the senate from number one hundred and twenty-two to number one hundred and twenty-eight inclusive, with the originals thereof as heretofore passed by both branches of the Legislature since the commencement of the present session, and that they have found the same to be truly engrossed.

All which is respectfully submitted,

HORACE WILLSON, Chairman.

By Order,

Benjamin Seegar, Cl'k.

Which was twice read, and concurred in.

The clerk of the senate delivered the engrossed bills of the senate, from number 301 to number 322 inclusive; and also the engrossed resolutions of the senate, from number 122 to number 128, inclusive.

Which were severally read, assented to, and returned to the senate.

The engrossed bills of the House of Delegates, from number 228, to number 300 inclusive, and from number 323, to number 330, inclusive; also the engrossed resolutions from number 1, to number 121, and from number 129, to number 130 inclusive; were severally read, assented to, and sent to the senate.

The clerk of the senate returned the said bills and resolutions, severally endorsed, read and assented to.

A deputation from the senate being announced, Messrs. Chapman and Morris, members of that body, appeared within the bar of the house, and informed the Speaker, that his Excellency, the Governor, was attending in the senate chamber, and requested the attendance of this house to see him sign and seal the laws.
