

Also, the bill entitled, an act to provide for electing the judges of the levy court of Frederick county, and prescribing their powers and duties.

Also, the bill entitled, an act for the relief of George Fouke and Elizabeth his wife, and Henry and Louis Fouke.

And also, the bill entitled, an act to abolish all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relates to the time and manner of electing the Senate, and the mode of filling up vacancies in that body, so that each county, and the city of Baltimore may have a Senator to be elected immediately by the people;

Severally endorsed, "will not pass."

And also, the bill entitled, an act relating to superseeding and fieri facias in this state, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendments;

Which amendments were read the first and second time by special order and dissented from.

On motion by Mr. Merrick, the house took a recess until half past four o'clock.

HALF PAST FOUR O'CLOCK, P. M.

The house met.

On motion by Mr. Grove,

The house took up for consideration the report of the committee on the coloured population, to which was referred the report of the members of the colonization society;

The said report was then read the second time;

Mr. Handy moved to refer the said report to the consideration of the next general assembly;

On which the question was put,

And resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Burgess from the committee on insolvency to which was referred the bill from the senate, entitled, a further supplement to the act, for the relief of sundry Insolvent debtors of this state, passed at December session 1805, chap. 110, reported favorably thereon.

The said bill was then read the second time, rejected and returned to the senate.

Mr. Jones of Baltimore city, from the committee, made a favorable report on the bill from the senate, entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act, to incorporate The Fells Point Savings Institution of Baltimore.

The said bill was then read the second time by special order, passed and returned to the senate.