

By the Senate,

March 15th, 1834.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,
We have received your message proposing to invite his Excellency the Governor in the Senate chamber this evening at five o'clock, for the purpose of signing the laws, and beg leave to suggest the hour of ten o'clock, in place of the hour named by you.
We have appointed Messrs. Morris and Willson, on the part of the senate, to join the gentlemen named by you.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, Clk.

Which was read.

Mr. Blakistone submitted the following messages;

Which was read the first and second time by special order, assented to, and sent to the senate.

By the House of Delegates,

March 15th, 1834.

Gentlemen of the Senate,
We have received your message proposing the hour of 10 o'clock, instead of 5 as proposed by this house, at which to invite his Excellency the governor in the senate chamber to sign and seal the laws, and concur therein.
On motion by Mr. Merrick,
The house took a recess until 8 o'clock this evening.

EIGHT O'CLOCK, P. M.

The house met.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill, entitled, an act to regulate the law terms of Prince George's county;

Also, the bill, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act, to reduce into one, the several acts of assembly, respecting elections, and to regulate such elections;

Also, the bill, entitled, an act, supplementary to the act passed at December session 1831, chapter 315; extending the powers of executors, of last wills and testaments, and for other purposes;

Also, the bill, entitled, an act for the payment of the journal of accounts;

Also, the bill, entitled, an act to divorce Elizabeth Ringgold of the city of Baltimore, from her husband Perry Ringgold;
