

Hospital. No means having been appropriated by the state, for the necessary repairs and the support of this institution, the resolution was designed through the Mayor and city Council of Baltimore, to restore the buildings to a condition essential for the usefulness of the institution, and indeed to prevent its entire abandonment. Being satisfied of the urgency of an arrangement such as is contemplated by the resolution, we ask your favorable consideration of it.

By order,

J. H. Nicholson, Clk.

Which was read.

And delivered the bill, entitled, a further supplement to the act, entitled, an act, for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors of this state, passed at November session 1805, chap. 110, heretofore rejected by this house, accompanied with the following message.

By the Senate,

15th March, 1834.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We beg leave to ask your reconsideration of the bill from the senate, entitled, a supplement to an act, relating to sundry insolvent debtors, believing, that if passed, it will have the effect of relieving the state of much expense, and preventing much consumption of the time of the assembly, occasioned now by the frequent applications of insolvent debtors, for special relief.

By order,

J. H. Nicholson, Clk.

Which was read.

The house took up for consideration, the bill from the senate, entitled, an act for the benefit of Hansely Brookes, of Frederick county;

The said bill was then read the second time by special order;

Mr. Heard called for the previous question, and being demanded by a majority of the members present, the said previous question was put, viz.

Shall the main question be now put,

And it was resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put,

Shall the bill pass,

Resolved in the affirmative.

And the bill was returned to the senate.

Mr. Nichols submitted the following order;

Which was twice read and adopted.
