

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

ANNAPOLIS, January 22d, 1835.

Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Delegates.

We herewith lay before you a communication from the President of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road company, with a printed copy of the eighth annual report of the President and Directors to the stockholders; also the proceedings of a convention lately held in the state of Tennessee, for the promotion of Internal improvements, and a report of the board of managers for removing people of color, with an account of their disbursements and other documents relating to that subject.

We have the honor to remain,
With the highest consideration

your obedient servant,
JAMES THOMAS.

Mr. Ridgely, seconded by two other members who voted in the majority, moved to reconsider the vote of the house on the bill, entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an Act to establish permanent salaries for the judges of the six judicial districts in this state,
Pending this motion, the Speaker announced the arrival of the hour for taking up the order of the day,

Mr. Ely, moved to postpone the order of the day,
Resolved in the affirmative.

The question then recurred on the motion submitted by Mr. Ridgely,

Mr. Pratt, called for the previous question, and being demanded by a majority of the members present, the said previous question was put viz 'shall the main question be now put,' and it was resolved in the affirmative,

The question was then put, will the house reconsider their vote on said bill,
Determined in the Negative.

So the house refused to reconsider.

On motion the house then resumed the consideration of the order of the day, being the report of the committee of the whole house, in relation to the southern and western boundaries of this state,

Mr. Merrick, moved that the house adjourn,
Determined in the negative,

Mr. Merrick then moved to postpone the order of the day,
Resolved in the affirmative.
