

Mr. Pratt presented a petition of Mary Stanton, of Prince George's county, praying to be placed on the pension list of said county;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Pratt, Key, and Worthington.

Mr. Pratt also presented a petition of James L. Alder, of Prince George's county, a revolutionary soldier, praying for a pension;

Which was read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Cushing presented a memorial of William Morris and George Morris, of the city of Baltimore, praying for an act to incorporate the Thistle Manufacturing Company, which was read and referred to Messrs. Cushing, Jones of Baltimore, and Ely.

Mr. Cushing also presented a petition of Robert Roach, praying for a special act of insolvency;

Which was read and referred to the committee on insolvency.

Mr. Carter presented a petition of sundry citizens of Caroline county, praying the passage of an act to authorise the opening of a road therein mentioned;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Carter, Burchard and Hardcastle.

Mr. Devecmon presented a petition of sundry inhabitants of Froxburg, in Allegany county, praying the passage of an act to authorise Andrew Bruce, Thomas Beall, and Wm. Ridgely, to survey, mark, and make a plot of said town agreeable to the original metes and bounds of the lots

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Devecmon, McMahon, and Beall.

Mr. Roberts of Queen Anne's, presented bills of expenses incurred by the 22^d regiment of Maryland militia, in quelling riots on the Baltimore and Washington rail road;

And, Mr. Ridgely presented bills of expenses for quelling riots on the Baltimore and Washington rail road;

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on claims.

Mr. Orlick presented a report of the trustees of St. James's Academy, in Baltimore county, relative to its condition;

Which was read and referred to the committee on education.

Mr. Merrick presented a petition of Henrietta Morris, of Charles county, praying to be divorced from her husband James Morris;