

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Fiery, Wharton, and Brookhart.

Mr. Fiery, also presented a petition of Joseph Emmort, of Washington county, praying the passage of an act to make valid a certain deed therein mentioned,

Which was read referred to Messrs. Fiery, Wharton, and Newcomer.

Mr. Worthington, presented a communication from the Inspectors of Lumber for the county and city of Baltimore, praying that white pine and bunch shingles, and every description of lumber, that shall be landed in the city of Baltimore, may be subject to inspection.

Which was read and referred to the committee on Inspections.

Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore county, presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the regulation of the Baltimore markets,

Mr. Brown, also, presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act to regulate the Baltimore markets,

And Mr. Winder, presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, against an ordinance passed by the Mayor and City Council of the city of Baltimore, on the 20th of April 1835,

Which were severally read and referred to the select committee already appointed on the subject of the Baltimore markets.

Mr. Brown presented a memorial of the trustees of Oakland Academy, in Baltimore county, praying a donation for said Academy.

Which was read and referred to the committee on Education,

Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore county, presented a petition of sundry citizens of the first election district of Baltimore county, for changing the place of holding the elections in said district,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Carroll, of Balt. county, Ely, and Brown,

And, Mr. Winder, presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, against a segregation of said county, and in favor of a separation of said county from the city of Baltimore,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Winder, Ely, Carroll of Balt. county, McLean, and Richardson.

Mr. Teackle obtained leave to bring in a bill, entitled, an act for the relief of William Adams of Somerset county,