

Ordered, that Messrs. Teackle, Long, and Dennis, report the same.

On motion of Mr. Teackle,

Ordered, that the committee on manufactures, be instructed to inquire into the expediency of introducing the manufacture of silk into the Penitentiary of this State.

On motion of Mr. Annan,

Ordered, that the committee on Grievances and courts of justice, be requested to inquire into the expediency of repealing that part of the laws of this State passed 1715, chapter 31, which authorises the killing Horses, Mares, Colts, and Geldings, trespassing on the enclosures of others.

Mr. Teackle submitted the following orders,

By the House of Delegates,
January 18, 1836.

Ordered, that the committee on crimes and punishments be instructed to inquire into the expediency of charging upon the Penitentiary, the payment of fees to sheriffs, for transporting convicts from the counties to the said institution.

Further ordered, that the same committee be instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing means for the punishing of petty offenders, other than by confinement in the Penitentiary.

Which were severally read and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Sutton,

Ordered, that the committee on pensions and Revolutionary claims, enquire into the propriety of placing William McMillan, a sergeant, during the revolutionary war, on the pension roll.

On motion of Mr. Carpenter,

Ordered, that the committee on pensions to indigent persons by county assessment, enquire into the propriety of placing Ann Maria Bowie, of Charles county, on the pension roll of said county.

Mr. Long reported a bill, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act to encourage internal improvements.

And, Mr. Wharton reported a bill, entitled, a supplement to an act, passed December Session 1833, chapter 144, entitled, an act for the reassessment and revaluation of all the real and personal property in Washington county,

Which were severally read the first and second time by special order passed, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore county reported a bill, entitled, an act to alter and amend an act providing for the appoint-