

Mr. Iglehart presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, and city, Anne Arundel county, and the citizens of Annapolis, praying the passage of a law, authorising Richard and William Linthicum, to build a bridge over Gwynn's falls at or near where the present bridge stands, known by the name of the Long Bridge,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Iglehart, Brown, McLean, Ridgely, and Duckett,

Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore county, presented a petition of sundry citizens of the city of Baltimore, praying an act to permit William Linthicum, and Richard Linthicum, to erect a bridge over Gwynn's falls,

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. McLean presented a petition of Mary Hammer, of the city of Baltimore, praying a divorce from her husband, James J. Hammer,

Which was read and referred to the committee on Divorces,

Mr. Richardson, presented a memorial of two thousand eight hundred and sixty four citizens of the city of Baltimore praying for a change in the present License system,

Which was read,

Mr. Richardson, moved that said petition be referred to a select committee,

Mr. Merrick, moved that it be referred to the committee on ways and means,

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. McLean presented a petition of Sarah Richards, praying for a divorce from her husband Isaiah Richards,

Which was read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. McLean, also, presented a memorial of the Fells' Point Savings Institution of Baltimore, praying the passage of an act to enable it to become 'The Eastern Bank of Baltimore,'

Which was read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Winder presented a memorial of Albin Mellier, praying the passage of an act, to incorporate 'The Maryland Print Works Company,

Which was read and referred to the committee on corporations.

Also, presented a petition of Lovering Ricketts, relative to partition fences in Baltimore county,