

county, to levy a sum of money for the purposes herein mentioned,

The said bill was then read the second time and passed.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day, the House proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Willis, entitled, an act for the division of Baltimore and Frederick counties, and for the erecting a new one by the name of Carroll, and to alter and change the Constitution of this State, so far as it may be necessary to effect the same,

On motion of Mr. Jones, said bill was postponed and ordered to lie on the table.

The Clerk of the Senate returned the bill, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act to regulate the inspection of leather, in the city of Baltimore, endorsed, "will pass," ordered to be engrossed;

Also, the bill, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act to encourage Internal Improvements;

Also, the bill, entitled, an act to authorize Richard Linthicum and William Linthicum to build a bridge over Gwynn's Falls, at or near where the present bridge stands, known by the name of the Long Bridge, severally endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendments," which amendments were read the first and second time by special order, assented to, and the bills ordered to be engrossed;

And delivered the following message

By the Senate,

January 27, 1836.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message of 26th inst., proposing a joint committee of the two Houses, to consist of nine members, to consider and report on the memorial of John B. Morris, in relation to the late riots in the city of Baltimore.

We have already appointed a committee, consisting of Messrs. Mayer, Sappington, Groome, Claude and Page, and they will join the committee named by your honorable body, to consider and report on the matter presented by the said memorial.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clerk.

Which was read.

On motion of Mr. Ely, the House took up for consideration, the bill, reported by Mr. Willis, entitled an act for the division of Baltimore and Frederick counties, and for
