

the city of Baltimore, praying for a Convention to reform the Constitution of the State of Maryland,

Which was read.

Mr. McLean moved that said memorial be referred to a committee of the whole House,

On the question being put, on referring it to a committee of the whole House,

It was determined in the negative,

Mr. Merrick moved that the memorial be referred to a select committee of nine.

Mr. Pratt moved that it be laid upon the table,

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Duvall presented sundry memorials signed by 3027 citizens of Frederick county, praying for a reform of the Constitution of this State, by a Convention,

Which were read—and,

On motion of Mr. Duvall, ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Wharton presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying the passage of a law calling a Convention to revise the State Constitution,

Which was read—and,

On motion of Mr. Wharton, ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Winder presented a petition of Jane Mills, widow of Joshua Mills, a Captain in the revolutionary army, praying for a pension,

Which was read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

On motion of Mr. Worthington,

Ordered, that the Treasurer of the Western Shore be required to communicate to this House, a statement of the whole amount of the costs of the buildings and lots of the State Tobacco Inspection Warehouses in the city of Baltimore, including the repairs thereon to the present date—the amount of the annual gross receipts of said warehouses from the establishment of the same; and the expenditures for each year, specifying each item of expense—also the amount now in the treasury to the credit of the warehouses over the sum due for their erection.

Mr. Merrick submitted the following resolution,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, that the Trustees of St. Peter's Free School, in Baltimore, be and they are hereby released, exonerated and discharged from the debt due by them to the State for monies advanced to them by virtue of resolution, No. 55, of November session, 1811.