

SATURDAY, January 30th 1836.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Townsend presented a petition of Mary Tyson, of Cecil county, praying for a divorce from her husband Joseph Tyson,

Which was read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Merrick presented a petition of Jane Allbritton, of Charles county, praying to be allowed a pension by county assessment,

Which was read and referred to the committee on pensions to indigent persons by county assessment.

Mr. Pratt presented a memorial of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, showing the progress of their work, and praying further aid from the state,

Which was read and referred to the committee on Internal improvements.

Mr. Richardson presented a memorial of sundry citizens of the city of Baltimore, praying a change in the present license system, And,

Mr. McLean presented a memorial of sundry citizens of the city of Baltimore, praying for the incorporation of a Real Estate Bank, in that city, with a capital of five millions,

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Ely presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act to regulate the Baltimore Markets,

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Matthews presented a petition of Philip Jackson and Dicey, his wife, free people of color and residents of the District of Columbia, praying to be allowed to return to, and reside in the State of Maryland,

Which was read and referred to the committee on the colored population.

Mr. Richardson presented a petition of Joseph S. Merriken, praying for a special act of insolvency,

Which was read and referred to the committee on insolvency.

Mr. Annan presented a petition of sundry citizens of