

Mr. Ely presented a petition of sundry taxable citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act to establish a public landing near the head of tide water on the Great Gunpowder Falls, in said county,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Ely, Brown and Sutton.

Mr. McLean presented a petition of James Bosley, setting forth that he is an assignee of the Maryland Canal Company, owner of certain water rights, and praying in case the Susquehanna Canal Company should be chartered and compensation granted to the Maryland Canal Company, that separate compensation may be granted to him,

Which was read and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Mr. Fiery presented a petition of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying the passage of a law, calling a convention to revise the State Constitution.

Mr. Nowland presented a memorial of numerous citizens of Cecil county, praying for a convention to reform the Constitution of the State of Maryland. And,

Mr. McMahon presented a memorial of sundry citizens of the seventh election district in Allegany county, praying for a reform of the Constitution of this State,

Which memorials were severally read and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Richardson presented a memorial of William C. Harris, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be remunerated for damages sustained during the late riots in the city of Baltimore,

Which was read and referred to the joint committee appointed on that subject.

Mr. Gough presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Harford county, praying the curtailment of the seines on the Potomac river,

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Winder presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act for the regulation of the Baltimore markets,

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject. And,

Mr. McLean presented a petition of John Gregg and others, heirs and representatives of Thomas Gregg, late of the city of Baltimore, praying to be authorised to hold certain Real Estate therein mentioned,