

And, delivered a bill originated in and passed by the Senate, entitled, an act to make valid a certain deed therein mentioned from Bene S. Pigman to Richard Coale,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Berry, McMahon, and Mathews,—Also,

Delivered the following messages,

By the Senate.

January 2d, 1836.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates.

The public interest always demands that the Legislature adjourn sine die at a period as early as the convenience of the people and the due consideration of the business will allow to gratify their demands, we propose to your honourable body to entertain no new proposition unless of pressing exigency after the 20th, and that the Legislature shall adjourn sine die on the 27th instant.

By order,

JOS. H. NICHOLSON, Clerk.

By the Senate,

February 2nd, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We propose with the concurrence of your honourable body to appoint a joint committee to enquire into and report as soon as practicable to this or the next Legislature, the manner in which the public monies appropriated for the construction of works of internal improvement in this State have been expended, and that they be empowered to send for persons and papers and examine under oath all persons employed by the several companies incorporated by this State, and to sit if necessary during the recess of the Legislature.

By order,

JOS. H. NICHOLSON, Clerk.

Which were severally read.

On motion of Mr. Townsend the house took up for consideration, the resolution submitted by him on yesterday, requiring the Inspectors of spirituous liquors, in the city of Baltimore, to publish in two or more daily newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore, quarterly reports of all foreign and domestic distilled spirituous liquors by them inspected, &c.

The said resolution was then read the second time by special order, assented to, and sent to the senate.
