So the amendment was rejected;

Mr. Duckett, then moved to amend said bill by inserting as the 8th section thereof the following,

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That before any subscription shall be made to the capital stock of the said Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, under and by virtue of this act, the stockholders of the said company shall, in general meeting assembled, stipulate, agree and bind the said company by a proper instrument of writing signed by the President, and under the corporate seal thereof to be lodged with the Treasurer of the Western Shore, to guarantee the State of Maryland the payment, out of the profits of the work, of six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the amount of money which shall be paid to the said company, under and by virtue of this act, until the clear annual profits of the said Rail Road shall be more than sufficient to discharge the sum of money, which it shall be liable annually so to pay to the State of Maryland, and shall be adequate to a dividend of six per centum per annum among its stockholders; and thereafter the State shall in reference to the stock subscribed for on its behalf, be entitled to have and receive a perpetual dividend upon the profits of the work as declared from time to time”
