So the house refused to reconsider the amendment.

Mr. Spence then moved that the said bill be rejected, Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Burchenal, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, entitled, a further supplement to an act, entitled, an act relating to the records of conveyances in the several counties of this State, passed at December session, 1833, chap. 88,

On motion of Mr. Ely, said bill was ordered to lie on the table.

The clerk of the senate, returned the resolution in favor of Joseph Allford, endorsed, 'assented to,' ordered to be engrossed,

And, delivered a bill originated in and passed by the house, entitled, an additional supplement to an act incorporating the Annapolis and Potomac Canal company,

Which was read and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Mr. Hambleton reported a bill, entitled, an act for the relief of Edward C. Council of Talbot county, and William Hains of Cecil county,

Which was read the first and second time by special order, passed and sent to the senate.

On motion of Mr. Merrick,

The house resumed the consideration of the unfinished business of yesterday, being the report of the joint committee on the subject of internal improvement,

And the substitute offered for said report, by the minority of said committee, being a bill, entitled, an act for the promotion of internal improvement,

The question before the house being upon the substitute
