So the amendment was adopted,
Mr. Brown moved that the house adjourn,
Determined in the negative.

Mr. Heard, seconded by two other members that voted in the majority, moved to reconsider the vote of the house upon the amendment just adopted, for the purpose of amendment,

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Merrick then moved to amend said amendment, by striking out from the word "certificates," to the end thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"At a rate or price which shall yield or produce to the State, less than twenty per cent nett, above the par or sum of said certificates of stock or bonds, when paid to the commissioner of loans or treasurer of the state,"

Which was read,

Mr. Pratt moved that the house adjourn,

Determined in the negative.

The question was then put upon the amendment to the amendment,

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question then recurred, and was put upon the amendment as amended,

Resolved in the affirmative.

At six o'clock, P. M. Mr. Pratt moved that the house adjourn,

Resolved in the affirmative.

The house accordingly adjourned until tomorrow morning 9 o'clock.
