

sess jurisdiction over all cases which by law was vested in said county courts before the passage of the law to which this is a supplement—and provided, that the Magistrate's Court in no Election District shall proceed to transact business until the courts in each district of the county have been regularly organized, and notice thereof given as hereinafter provided for.

And be it enacted, that whenever the Magistrates Courts to which each county are entitled, shall be regularly organized; it is hereby made the duty of the clerks of the several county courts to give twenty days public notice in writing, set up at the places of holding elections in the several counties, certifying that all said courts have been regularly organized according to law; and after the expiration of said twenty days, the said courts shall proceed to transact business, and the jurisdiction of the county courts as aforesaid, shall cease in said counties, but not so as in any manner to affect cases instituted in said courts before the organization of the Magistrates Courts as aforesaid,

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Teackle, said bill was amended by adding at the end of the first section thereof, the following,

'And further provided, that this act shall not affect any district in any county in which said court shall have been organized.'

Mr. Long moved further to amend said bill by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section, the following,

'And be it enacted, that the county courts in each county of this State, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with said magistrates courts in all cases contemplated by the original act.'

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Townsend, said bill was further amended, by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section, the following,

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, that an additional court shall be instituted and organized in the village of Port Deposit, in Cecil county, with power to take cognisance of all such cases as may lawfully be brought before it, originating in the limits of said village, together with such suits in the 3rd and 4th election districts, as the parties may wish to have tried by said court—and the Governor and Council be and they are hereby required to appoint three additional justices for said court, who shall immediately upon the receipt of their several commissions, proceed to organize said court,