VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, NOVEMBER, 1779. 57

That it appears to your committee by last report, there was then temaining in the office, out of the 80,000 dollars emitted for payment of public claimants, a balance of 978 16 8. That the commissioners have since paid to William Thomas his allowance on the journal of accounts.

For which payment they have produced to your committee the new ceffery voucher and receipt, and there remains in the office on 976 8 8. The above account a balance of -978 16 8.

That out of the above balance of £. 976 8 8;, there still remains due to fundry claimants on the journal of accounts, passed at November session, 1773, the sum of £. 424 7 2 currency.

That your committee find by a report made in January, 1778, there was a balance of 121.038.

That your committee find by a report made in January, 1778, there was a balance of 121,938 delians in the office, for the purpose of exchanging torn and defaced bills, which sum still remains in the office.

That it appears to your committee by the last report; there had been received for interest on the 235,3334 dullars lent out on loan, the sum of £.4,066 18 2; that there has been received in the said-emission, from 26th January, 1778, to 30th November, 1779, the sum of £.4,293 16 5; and that the said two sums, amounting to £.8,360 14 7, now remain in the office; appropriated for the purpose of erecting a college or seminary of learning; that there has become and still remains, due on the above emission for interest, the sum of £.497 17 sterling.

That your committee find by a report in January, 1778, there was then a balance of £.740 5 11½ gold curryncy in the office, received from the treasurers and naval officers on account of the light-house on Cape Henry, that the commissioners have since paid away the sum of £.277 4.8 gold currency, for which have been produced to your committee the next slary voucher and receipt, and that there remains in the office on that account a balance of £.563 1 3½ gold currency, consulting of 9 oz. 8 dws. in gold, and the residue in bills of credit.

That in order to give the honourable houses some general idea of the several emissions and the funds for linking them, take leave to fubioin the following account:

Dr. TATE of MARYLAND. and soil or tights C. G. N.T. R.A. Cr. To tills of credit of the By Olgoed Hanbury, Silvanus Grove, and emition of 1767, to James Russell, for a balance in their be funk, paid fundry >58409 1 115 hands, per account figned claimants by act of By fundries for gold and filver, bills of affeinbly exchange, and bills of credit, of the and ditto of ditto, that emission 1770, lent them on bond - 28655 10 gal remains due to By Landries for interest now due from fundry claimants on them on the above emission the journal of ac-By lundry theriffs for net amount of orcounts and lift of dinary licences due from them per lift debts paffed in 1766 returned, amounting to 1.1993 4 8 2 sold currency, at 331 per cent. discount 1494. 18 To bills of credit emitted in 1770 By fundry persons for thills of credit of the emission 1774, in them on bond 25065 o By the western store treasury By Anne-Arundel, Baltimore, and Frederick counties, lent them in bills of credit emitted 1774, for the use of the poor and repairing the public roads By sundries for interest now due on the above emilion By bills of credit 1770 remaining in the office - 49757 o 3 By dirto 1774

To balance due the state - 484 1 11

£.211310 8 10‡

11310 8 10

By balance due the frate

By Bank of England per account current for £. 29000 capital flock, which cost

136131 6 6

By Ofgood Hanbury, Silvanus Grove, and James Russell, for net amount of dividends on the above, from 10th November, 1774.

By ditto received for interest on the emission

By ditto of same emission

By ditto and gold, balance of monies received from the treasurers and naval efficers on account of a light-house on Cape Hen-

per account rendered - 30652

By fundry therists for net amount of ordinary licences not ascertained,

That