W. H. Ridgely Esq. With the following Propose.

By the Senate, March 21st 1779.

Gentlemen,

Considering the high Rates at which Gentlemen live here at this time, we are willing to excuse the Allowance of the Members of the General Assembly, as you propose, for this Session; but as you may consider the Resolve as an Appropriation of public Money, we are unwilling to propose any Alteration or Amendment, and have therefore returned it with our Negative. Should you think proper to send us another Resolve, confining the Allowance to the present Session, it will have our Assent. Hereafter we shall hope for Instructions to authorize our passing any general Resolve, in a matter of so delicate a Nature as the Increase of our own Allowances. By Order W. H. Ridgely Esq.
