

P. S. We have an armed Brig just now arrived in the Dock with a valuable Cargo for this State and hope by the winter to have the ~~store~~ properly assorted.

Sir, your favour of the 27th instant has been received and you will oblige us by complying with our requests.

General Smallwood.

Sir

November 1st 1776

You will with all possible diligence make your company to Philadelphia and there apply to the Continental Board of War for further orders and for what your company may want.

Col. S. Smith.

We are &c.

Gentlemen,

Atmajoletis Nov. 1st 1776

The commissions that Col. Ranney mentions in his letter to Mr. Tylman were made and delivered to Ser J. Fisher who says that he delivered them to Captain Meroney. The Duplicates we now enclose you. The claim of our State to its proportion of the Back Lands is so just that we are persuaded the Convention will not give it up.

Commissioners

We are Gentlemen

Your ob. hum^{ble} Servants.

Sir

Nov. 1st 1776

We do not recollect that we are to select Mr. Rodolph to purchase Coal for our State, nor any other person except Captain Berrey - by whom we send money.

Mr. J. DuRoi

We are, &c.

Sir

November 1st 1776

We cannot depart from the resolution of Convention and therefore hope your men will enlist on the terms of deducting the first Bounty from the last ordered by Convention to be advanced to those Soldiers who may enlist into the Continental Service.

T. Captain H. Toomes

Sir

November 5th 1776

We should be obliged to you to procure ~~at~~ Captain and hands for the Schooner you mentioned and let us know when the Resolution will be ready to sail and what quantity of Superfine flour you have engaged or likely to get. Captain's Martin's Brig must be cleaned and fitted so as to take in her Cargo with all expedition. If Superfine flour cannot be had for her in Baltimore she will be loaded elsewhere. Please inform us of the Prices of Flour from time to time.

We are &c.

Joseph Hollingsworth. P. S. Mr. Clark has offered us a vessel and says she will carry 700 Barrels of Superfine flour and numerous other articles.

Sir

Nov. 5th 1776

Your letters of 30th and 31st ult. we have read but hurry of business prevented our answering them sooner. We can say nothing as to the purchase of your vessel till we have seen the quality of the Sails Rigging and Tackle. You will
