To the Honorable

Gentlemen, your most obed^t Humble Serv^t

Council of Safety at Annapolis.

H. Hoollingsworth.

P.S. My bayonett fingers have been two of them sick for some time, but yesterday began to rub again.

Head of Elk 24th August 1776.

Gentlemen.

Just arrived at the Head of Elk and expected to have been furnished with bayonets and knapsacks and Canteens, but find there is nothing provided for me here, nor a field officer to direct me. I purpose continuing my march to Philadelphia, where I hope your Honors will have me provided for. As I am anxious to leave my country, I hope these necessities may not be forgot. I engaged Mr Price's boats for ten pounds who would not go under that sum but think it was rather much.

To the Honorable

I am in haste &c &c your humble Servant.

Council of Safety of Maryland.

— Ino Dean.

Sir,

Frederick Town August 24th 1776.

By direction of the Committee, I wrote you a few days ago inquiring you that the money sent here for the support of the Prisoners is all expended and to request you would be pleased to order more to be sent up, which I now repeat. That you may know what sum may be necessary have enclosed you an account of the Expenses attending the Prisoners for week and week.

To the Hon^{ble} Council of Safety at New Jersey.

Sir your most obed^t Able Serv^t

President of the Council of Safety.

Gentlemen.

Philadelphia Aug^t 25th 1776.

I arrived at this city on the 23rd Inst to join our respective battalions commanded by Col Charles B Griffith by whom I understand that we are at the loss of a Major and desired I should act in that capacity until further orders from the Hon^{ble} Council of Safety whom I expect will give me the precedence as I raised the first company in this battalion and I believe that I am one of the first in the Province of the Flying Camp. If the Hon^{ble} Council will please to commission me to act as Major I would be highly obliged to you to forward it as quick as possible and remain with gratitude

The Honorable Council of Safety

Your Obed^t Serv^t

To the Honorable Council of Safety

of Maryland. Gent^l - The inclosed commission the humble Commission were pleased to know me with in January last. I have since that time altered my situation in life which makes it inconvenient for me to keep the same. I hope the above reason will be satisfactory for my resigning.

I have the honor to be Gent^l your Obed^t Serv^t

Worcester County Aug 27th 1776.
