

common that there was a paper which they said was a letter from the late David Cameron, in which he told her that he was going to the continent to some place named the "Morse" and that certain Lewis Dunsford was to be on board the "Morse" and had brought up a great deal of money and that all those who were on the ship were to go down to the "Morse" to see to get their share of the money, and that the said Lewis Dunsford had brought a paper from on board the "Morse" which said that there was a great deal of money on board the "Morse" and that the said Lewis Dunsford was to get it, and that if there was a sailor on board of the ship who had a paper they were to have assistance immediately from the land to get it.

November 25th 1975.

Before him. I'll be there.

Johna Wolby of Danball ap. being called upon by the Committee deposed as follows, that he was at home by Donnell's on Jan 20th 18th inst, when he heard Jervie Donnell say that he had seen or heard the man at least five days, that Mr William Allen was at the said place the 7th inst. & endeavored to persuade him to appear before the Committee. That same evening he was told that he must die before he was taken in custody to the hospital which he refused. He carried the news to his wife and their daughter Kate says that early on Monday morning following Benjamin Butler came to the house and told him to go down to him at Donnell's, that there was a lot to be got
