

there - to which this deponent replied, No - The said Trapnell also said that Bosley had better quit collecting fines - and if he did not he would be as surely killed, as he was born. and that there were men there at that time, who came on purpose to kill him. and that the Trapnell came to save his life, and that he wanted to talk to Capt. Bosley, and advised him to quit. for it was a damned piece of roguery - Capt. Bosley and Rhodes being done conversing, Trapnell told Capt. Bosley to go home, and not to proceed any further, for if he did, that he would be killed as sure as he was a man, and that this deponent thinks said Trapnell lifted up his cane and said that if Bosley did proceed, he would not give that for his life (shaking his cane) which this deponent concurred - There were some others also who did the same - - - - -

Capt. Bosley then told them, that there seemed to be an "ennemity" for him there, but that he (Bosley) would apply to the Committee for a guard of men to support him in the collection of the fines - Vincent Trapnell then desired to know the time and place, and that he wanted fair play, jumping up and knocking his heels together, swearing by God "he was Bottom" and turning round to his company, said that he could raise 500 men by night and 1500 men by Saturday night - It was also proposed by some of the Company then assembled, to pull down Capt. Bosley's house and destroy his living, which proposition Trapnell acquiesced in, - During which time Trapnell among others used a great deal of ill language, and challenged a certain Smith, who went with Capt. Bosley, to fight, and further this deponent saith not. Served in Council of Safety this Aquilla Willmott.

Gentlemen - On consequence of your letter of the 23<sup>d</sup>. Summons are issued to Vincent Trapnel, Henry Guyson, James Smith, George Brown and James Bosley to attend your Honorable Board the 4th December.

You have inclosed a further deposition on the same subject, and we apprehend a Summons from your Board will have more effect, than one from our Committee, and indeed we are very suspicious that the present summons will not be obeyed. We are &c. Your most Obedt Servts.
The Honble Daniel of St. Thomas Esq. - (In order)
