the said Traphing had in his hand, which was a small walking cane, and was not opposed in any way, but desired the said Bosley to let matters lie till they could get some redress from the Committee, and they heard said Traph-ing ask Bosley if he Bosley had demanded any fine of him when he was at his house, and Bosley said he did not, and further say not.

Came before me Daniel Thomas and John Thomas, and made oaths that this Deposition is truth and fact according to the Best of their recollection.

Sworn January 1st 1777. Before me, James Calder.

November 20th 1776

Then came the subscribers before me one of his Lordship's Justices of the Peace for the said County and made oaths on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, that he the said Subscriber, were at a certain Richard Prodes and that a certain James Bosley and James Smith came to the said Richard Prodes, and James Bosley asked the said Prodes if they might come in, and the said Prodes reply'd you may come in, and James Bosley said unto the said Prodes I suppose you will not let me sell to day, and the said Prodes reply was you may do as you please. And that Vincent Traphing was then present at the same time, which did not oppose the said James Bosley from selling any goods or chattels, nor neither was there any clubs or sticks more than the said Traphing had in his hand, which was a small walking cane and was not opposed in any way, but desired the said James Bosley to let matters lie till they could get some redress from the Committee.

And Charles Proes make oaths that he was at Richard Prodes with the other subscribers, but did not hear particularly the words mentioned within by the other witnesses, but that he saw no opposition made to James Bosley by any person present.
