Then came James Smith before me the subscriber one of the Lord Proprietor's Justices of the Peace for said County and made oath on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that the above account is just and true as it stands stated, and that he has not received any parcel nor security for the same to the best of his knowledge.

Thomas Bond.

Gentlemen. I have sent you an account of what money I have paid for my expenses going to, at and from Annapolis attending the Council of Safety and attending the Committee of Baltimore County concerning Vincent Trapnell.

James Smith

Baltimore County, Jst.

January 25th 1777. Then personally appeared before me the subscriber one of the Justices of the Peace for the County aforesaid James Ogleby, and made oath on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God, that some time in June or July last he the said James Ogleby went with Capt. James Bosley to the House of a certain Vincent Trapnell at which time he this Deponent saw the said James Bosley
