

shew the said Trapnell a list of the Peoples Fines in the County aforesaid for not associating and enrolling agreeable to the resolve of the Honorable Convention of the Province of Maryland, and that the said James Bosley told the said Trapnell that he was then going about to give the people a months notice on account of their respective fines aforesaid and this Deponent further saith not.

Taken before me the day and year above, } James Oglesby.
within Benjamin Rogers

By chance I met Vincent Traplin on the Road 25th Inst. and presented him with this letter (a copy of the same I sent him the day before) at the sight of which he damned me, &c. shaking a Grape vine with a large end to it at me - Swearing if a man was absent who was with him he would do for me. The man shamed him, begged him to ride on: he then rode away, threatening me with abusive Language.

James Bosley.
Sir. This day at 10 O. Clock is to be examined at Mr Benjamin Rogers some evidences concerning your opposition to me in the collection of fines &c. 24th January 1777. To Mr Vincent Traplin. James Bosley Baltimore County, J<sup>s</sup>. Then came James Tibbitt before me one of his Lordships Justices of the Peace for the County aforesaid and made oath on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God that one one Sunday was at James Bosley's house and there was disturbance between him and his mother and I said to Bosley I am sorry to see discord between mother and son and the said Bosley said that she had not acted like a mother for when Hill Savage and my mother was at law, had I not both persuaded people to say and to swear, or my mother would a lost the cause.

27th January 1777. Benjamin Rogers } James Tibbitt.
Baltimore County, J<sup>s</sup>. Then came Frances Haislit before me one of his Lordships Justices of the Peace for the County aforesaid and made oath on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God that on the 24th day of this Instant. He heard Vincent Trapnell ask a certain James Bosley as he believes if he hindered him from selling at Richard Podes and Bosley said no, and Trapnell asked him if any one that was there did and Bosley said no. Francis Haislit.

January 27th 1777. - Benjamin Rogers
Baltimore County J<sup>s</sup> Then came John Cox before me one of his Lordships Justices of the Peace for the County aforesaid and made oath on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God that on Friday the 27th of December last that he heard a man ask Vincent Trapnell if he went to Richard Podes to hinder Bosley from selling, and Trapnell said he did not. 27th January 1777. Benjamin Rogers } James Cox, his mark

Gentlemen, Mr James Bosley came to my house in October and examined