M^r. Purviance appeared and was informed by the President that the Council of Safety on considering his conduct and the high and dangerous offence of assuming the Supreme Executive Power in that Province, had resolved that he should enter into a Recognizance in the sum of five hundred Pounds Current Money for his appearance at the Convention, on Thursday the 9th day of May next, as this matter would then be laid before that meeting for their consideration.

This Recognizance is as follows.

"You Samuel Purviance acknowledge yourself to owe and justly stand indebted unto the Honourable the Council of Safety for the Province of Maryland in the full and just sum of five hundred pounds Current Money, to be levied of your Body, Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements in case you do not make your personal appearance at the next Convention on Thursday the 9th of May next, then to answer to such things as may be objected against you, and not depart from said Convention without the leave thereof."

The said Samuel Purviance acknowledged himself to be content therewith. Copy of Letter N^o. 132 was sent to Captain James Nicholson.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to Captain James Nicholson two hundred Pounds on account of the Sea Forces under his Command.
