

Information we received, that there were one, or two Barrels of Bullets, and a Quantity of Gun flints belonging to the Province in the Possession of Mr. Lodge; - we wrote to you the 14th February requesting that you would make Enquiry into that Matter. If you found it true, that you would take them under your care, and send them to the Council of Safety by the first safe Conveyance; but as we have not received any Answer to our Letter, we presume it must have miscarried and therefore we send you this, and beg that you will immediately examine into the Truth of the above Information.

Gent^l We have heretofore wrote you with Regard to the Station of Capt^l John Allen Thomas's Company. not receiving any Answer, we expected the Station allotted him at Leonard Town would have been agreeable to you and him; and indeed to every Body else, as being
