

but could get no Permit to Dunmore, he got a Letter his said to the Committee of Hampton - they declined giving him any Passport; he went to Lord Dunmore without - and on his Way back was stop'd by Captain Baron, who took from him some Letters to Governor Eden, and particularly a circular Letter, also a private Letter from L^d G. Germaine, which we take it for granted you have seen. - some of the Committee of Baltimore assuring us that they forwarded 6 Duplicates to the Congress. - on Receipt of these Letters Monday Afternoon, we immediately gave Orders to apprehend Ross - and the next Morning a Deputation from our Board together with W. Paca Esq^r then in Town waited on the Governor, shew'd him the Copies of the intercepted Letters, and request'd a Sight of his Letter of the 27th of August to Lord Dartmouth - the Governor declared to us, that he had sent away the Copy of that Letter with all his other Papers of Consequence

(last)