

upon it as giving his Parole in Effect that he will not leave the Province till the Convention, and will endeavour to promote the Peace thereof in the mean Time - he wishes to continue in that Line of Conduct, as long as he can consistent with his Station, and will not leave the Province after the Convention, provided they will assure him, that when he finds he can no longer stay with Peace and Consistency, he may have Leave to depart and carry his Effects - this we promised to recommend to our Friends in Convention - W. L. agrees with us in Opinion that we may rest satisfied with this Answer and not call the Convention sooner than the 24th of May, unless something further should intervene - You have probably heard that our Convention did not meet agreeable to their late Adjournment; on Friday Evening 26 Members, who were collected, agreed to separate and that
